HAPPY BIRTHDAY - The Caring and Sharing Trust celebrated the 30 year anniversary of the trust with lots of song, laughter and fun in the Trust's Theatre in Cogenhoe on Friday. The charity's patrons attended the event.

MP slams plans to cut care services

The Shadow Minister for Care and Older People has slammed plans to cut dementia care services in Northamptonshire as 'appalling', adding that families affected by the condition will face a 'desperate struggle'.

Leicester West MP Liz Kendall made the statement during a visit to a Northampton care home on Monday. See what more she had to say in our story online.

Crime in county falls 13 per cent

Crime in Northamptonshire has fallen by 13.1 per cent in the last 12 months.

However, the latest figures by Northants Police also reveal drug trafficking has risen by 15.4 per cent. See more online.

Food bank sees aid need double

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

Northampton Food Bank has doubled the amount of food parcels it is handing out.

Nine months ago it was giving out 60 food packages a week, now it is distributing 120 parcels a week.

The food packages are given to those in crisis and who qualify for the food vouchers.

They are only allowed five parcels every twelve months and each package lasts three days.

Food bank co-ordinator Jo Miller said there were a number of reasons for the increase which included: people losing their jobs, increase in fuel and food prices and the bedroom tax.

Jo said: "We have not seen a decrease. We thought the increase was due to Christmas but it has continued to rise.

"People get referred to us through 8 referral agencies like Community Law and Citizens Advice.

"We only give out food parcels to individuals and families in crisis with emergency food."

Editor's Letter

Alone again or is it a little peace and quiet for dad?

The perversity of modern life put me in an odd position last week. My One True Love and the kids headed off to Spain to share a villa with some friends and I stayed at home to carry on the important task of bringing you the news.

Actually I was cool with it. It's not always possible for everyone to get holiday at the same time and it would be silly for them to miss out on a great holiday.

And I'll admit, I was intrigued by the idea of having my house to myself for a week after many years dedicated to filling it up with four now not so little children.

The novelty of peace and quiet soon wore off but it was quite something, after dropping them at the airport, to come back to our creaking Victorian house and to be the only living thing in it.

(Probably a bit of poetic licence there, especially when it comes to the older boys' room).

I still cannot believe the first thing I did.

I was not going to make schoolboy errors like leaving the housework to the last day . . .

I went straight to the washing machine and switched the finished load in there into the dryer. I had had a word with myself of course. I was not going to get caught out with schoolboy errors like leaving myself all the housework to do on the last day before they got back.

But this was ridiculous.

You know when people who are on holiday say to each other: "leave the chores for now, sit down, you're on holiday..."

There's no equivalent phrase for being home alone. No-one says: "put your feet up, do it later when there is still no-one to talk to..."

There were people to talk to anyway, thanks to the magic of digital tablets I was saying goodnight to Bonnie every night and having awkward exchanges with my sons where I asked boring questions and they transmitted adolescent nonchalance back.

It was almost like having them at home...

Bus makes an unofficial stop

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER

nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

Passers-by were left bemused when they saw a bus pull up into a residential parking area in Northampton.

Last Thursday afternoon a single-decker was pictured in the parking area on Gloucester Avenue in Delapre.

The picture has since circulated widely on Facebook and Twitter, leaving people puzzled as to what caused the bus to end up there.

Charlotte Dewar, 18, a passenger who was on the bus, said: "The bus drove head on to another bus, so it pulled into the parking area to let it through."

"There were cars parked on the side of the road so they both couldn't fit."

"It was a funny experience, but I was late to work because of it."

"I have experienced worse than this before, as

ODD: Bus in residential parking area in Delapre

one time I was on a bus and someone had parked practically in the middle of the road and the bus couldn't get past, so the driver had to call the police."

A spokesman for Stagecoach said: "We have reviewed CCTV footage which shows that at no time did our bus pull into or park in a residential driveway."

"Due to a significant volume of parked cars and other traffic, the bus driver used a general parking area to safely manoeuvre his vehicle and allow another bus and other traffic to pass."

Land of the rising sun loves town's shoes

REPORTER Lawrence John learns more about how a Northampton shoe firm is 'big in Japan' and aims for more success in the Far East

An unassuming building in the Bunting Road, Northampton holds a secret treasure.

Behind a yellow door beats the heart of a Northampton tradition which is synonymous with the town - shoe making.

Since 1984, Chancery Footwear Limited have been producing quality shoes in the county.

Indeed the company's history goes back five generations to 1908 when the Woodford family began making boots and shoes.

It was Earnest Woodford who started the family's tradition in London before the company arrived in Northampton.

One remarkable fact about the company is two years ago it exported zero items, now it exports 60 per cent of shoe production to Japan and South East Asia.

This success was not a case of them going to Japan, rather Japan came to Northampton.

A Japanese buyer came to town, took away samples of their work and started making orders.

Chris Woodford said: "The important thing for the Japanese as to why they buy our shoes is they are made in Britain and made in Northampton."

"They appreciate this tradition and quality."

"What they want from us are shoes which can be worn any time of the day, they are comfortable and can be easily worn in their hot climate."

"All our shoes are handmade in Northampton."

"Each pair comes with our new logo the Crown of Northampton."

"Two years ago we were making 100 pairs of shoes a year, this has now risen to 1,700 pairs per year. "At this rate we will outgrow this factory but we will remain in Northampton."

Chris explained he was proud of his family's heritage in the shoe industry.

He cared passionately about the fact the company did its own design and pattern cutting.

He added: We want to make sure that history and the history of Northampton is part of every pair of shoes we produce.

The company is keen to continue its growth in South East Asia and their shoes are on sale in China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Singapore and Malaysia.

It also wants to open up a new market and start selling shoes in South Korea and Vietnam.

The firm produce three distinct ranges:

- Classic: focus on soft leathers and flexible soles

- Premium: with a leather super, lining and sole. Each pair is crafted using traditional shoemaking skills.

- Exotic: Combines leather and skin uppers with a lamb-nappa lining.

The exotic range include using materials such as snake skin, Aqua green brown wolf fish, soft tan Wolf fish, deer skin and ostrich skin.

The cost of the shoes range from £90 - £150.

In the Far East, Chancery Footwear is sold in the same shops which sell Church's Shoes and Trickers Shoes.

Each shoe has a different name and these include Beaconsfield, Bunting, Colwyn, Cowper, Duke, Dunster, Earl, Ecton, Ethel, Great Russell, Harold, Henry, Hood, Hunter, Louise, Lorne, Overstone, Palmerston, Shakespear, Spencer, Stockley, St Michael, Victoria Webb and Woodford.

Those of you with a discerning eye will recognise the shoes are named after former Northampton shoe factories.

The firm also makes Formula 1 racing boots, tap dancing shoes, boxing boots and steel toe cap shoes.

THEY GOT SOLE: Chancery Footwear in Bunting Road, show why they are now exporting 60 per cent of the shoes they make in Northampton to Japan.

Top 5

Five streets with a historic connection

Here is a top five of Northampton's history commemorated in its street names

Walter Tull Way is named after Walter Tull. He made 111 appearances for Northampton Town Football Club between 1911 and 1914, was the first black officer in the British Army. He was killed in World War One in a spring offensive in 1918.

Edgar Mobbs Way is named after Lieutenant Colonel Edgar Roberts Mobbs DSO 7th Northamptonshire Regiment who died on July 31 1917. He was club captain from 1907 - 1913, scoring 177 tries and was won seven caps for England in 1909 - 1910.

Drovers Walk is linked to Northampton's Welsh connection. This is when Welsh Drovers would bring their sheep and cows to Northampton cattle market to sell them.

4

Queen Eleanor Road is where you will find the town's Eleanor Cross. King Edward I had the crosses erected between 1291 - 1294 in memory of his wife Eleanor of Castile, marking the resting-places along the route as her body was taken to London.

Talavera Way marks the 48th (Northamptonshire) Regiment of Foot who fought in The Battle of Talavera (27-28 July 1809) outside the town of Talavera de la Reina, during the Peninsular War in Spain.

A&E extension in pipeline for NGH

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

Northampton General Hospital has submitted plans to extend its Accident and Emergency Department in a bid to cope with increasing numbers of patients.

The Trust submitted a planning application on Monday to Northampton Borough Council for a single storey extension which will house a GP assessment unit and consultants offices.

They will also implement a filtering system whereby a 'navigation nurse' will send people with minor cases to nearby GPs. It is hoped this will reduce patient numbers.

Deborah Needham, NGH chief operating officer, said: "The proposed A&E extension is one of several changes we want to make in order to increase our capability for providing urgent care to a growing number of acutely unwell patients.

"This extension will house a 'navigation' nurse who will assess patients and guide them to the appropriate place for treatment. This will either be straight into A&E for serious cases, or to primary care for less serious injuries or illnesses. In some cases patients may be referred to a pharmacist or even sent home without treatment."

The new building will be sited next to the A&E department on a strip of land adjacent to the one way road system. It is expected to be completed by March 2015.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Trevor Skidmore feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service the Northampton, Kettering, Wellingborough & Corby areas and Trevor is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. "The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Trevor a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

DEVASTATED: The couple could now face extradition to the US in just a matter of days

Dunhams' lose latest battle

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

A Northampton couple fighting extradition to the USA over an alleged work expenses fraud have lost their appeal to move the case to Supreme Court.

The married couple in their late 50s lost their High Court appeal in February and were facing extradition to the USA within days to face charges in Maryland, with the possibility of months behind bars waiting for trial and the prospect of years in jail if found guilty.

Lawyers for Paul and Sandra then in March lodged applications at the High Court seeking certification to appeal to the Supreme Court in the Dunhams' fight against extradition.

However, the High Court have formally handed down its decision this week to dismiss the Dunhams' latest appeal.

Paul Dunham said: "Sandra and I have maintained our dignity whilst fighting as hard as we can to get the British authorities to see the injustice of the situation we face. But successive Ministers tell MP Andrea Leadsom they cannot free us from the vice-like grip of the US machine - their hands are tied.

"Whilst we are thankful for all Andrea's efforts, the harsh reality is Sandra and I are pawns in a game being played by others. We're powerless and it's excruciating.

"We now put our hopes in the European Court, but fear the outcome is inevitable. How many more lives will be torn to shreds by our Government's failure to protect its own citizens from unfair extradition with automatic pre-trial imprisonment? It's a sad indictment of politics today that honouring a Treaty to the US is a higher priority than justice. Only in Britain."

Abandoned dog like a bag of bones

A Staffordshire bull terrier called Stanley had to be rescued after he was found in the Briar Hill area of Northampton so thin an RSPCA inspector called him 'a bag of bones'.

Stanley was found on April 4 in the Briar Hill area of Northampton by a concerned member of the public.

The dog was struggling to stand and tied with rope to a drain pipe.

The dog, which has since been named Stanley, was severely emaciated and had scabs all over his body that vets said were a result of him being so skinny.

He was collected by the RSPCA and immediately rushed to a local vet for treatment.

Stanley is responding well, and has since been moved to an RSPCA centre where he can recover fully.

RSPCA inspector Damian Wooliscroft said: "Nothing shocks us inspectors these days, but the state of this dog really did.

"Stanley was just a bag of bones and had pressure sores and scabs all over his poor weak body. It was desperately sad to see.

"Stanley has likely been suffering for a long period of time to get in such a state and then someone has just dumped him like a piece of rubbish.

"I will do all I can to find the person responsible for allowing Stanley to fall into such a desperate state.

"Stanley is probably around five to six years old and despite the terrible ordeal he has been through he is still extremely friendly and trusting.

"I would appeal to anyone who has any information regarding this to call me on the RSPCA inspector appeal line on 0300 123 8018.

RABBIT, RABBIT: Clare Ellis, a lecturer from Moulton College with a cuddly bunny

The big bunny research in Northamptonshire

New research being carried out by researchers at Moulton College and the University of Northampton is investigating how big Britain's bunny problem is, by launching an online study to find out why people give up their pets – particularly rabbits.

Clare Ellis is a Moulton College Lecturer who is studying towards a PhD investigating personality and temperament testing in rabbits with the University of Northampton.

Clare said: "Having worked in a rescue centre in Lancashire, I have seen first-hand just how many pets are given up by their owners each year.

"This project is an opportunity to explore this topic further through my research at Moulton College, and will benefit rabbits and their owners in the long term by helping us understand why rabbits are given up as pets."

New head of NSB delighted with job

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

Richard Bernard has been announced as the new head of Northampton School for Boys.

He is currently Vice Principal at Brooke Weston Academy in Corby and will take up the reins when the new school year starts in the autumn.

The current head Sir Michael Griffiths retires at the end of the summer term. Mr Bernard said: "I am absolutely delighted to be taking up the post of Headteacher at Northampton School for Boys in September. "The school is steeped in heritage and has a long-standing legacy of outstanding student achievement and school leadership and I feel privileged to be able to lead a school with such an exceptional history and reputation. "My aims for the school are to continue to develop the outstanding levels of provision both in regard to the academic curriculum and the nationally acclaimed co-curriculum in order to secure excellence in student outcomes at an academic and personal level for each student. We will also look to develop and expand the Teaching School arm of the school in order to build on the excellent Teacher Training opportunities that are already in place.

"I am fortunate to have worked closely with two outstanding Headteachers in Northamptonshire during my career to date and most latterly within a highly successful Senior Leadership Team at Brooke Weston Academy and I am thankful for the range of opportunities that the Brooke Weston Trust has given me to develop my leadership skills.

"I now look forward with great enthusiasm to working with the students, staff, parents and governors of Northampton School for Boys from September to take the school through the next stage of its development."

County MP set to face a new expenses investigation

Wellingborough & Rushden MP Peter Bone finds himself under investigation for his expenses.

Mr Bone, who denies any wrongdoing, is being investigated by the independent standards commissioner, Kathryn Hudson.

The probe relates to the upkeep of his second home between 2005 - 2009. The system for investigating alleged abuses of MPs' expenses was reformed in 2009 but cases involving claims made before 2010 invoke the previous investigatory system.

Hope Centre does a tremendous job

The football club I support has a dreadful habit of "clutching defeat from the jaws of victory"! Just when I think they're finally going to win, in the last few minutes they concede a silly goal (or two) and we've lost again.

It's very dispiriting and there are times when it would be easy to lose hope.

But of course the real saying celebrates "snatching victory from the jaws of defeat" and I can also remember games which we've won in the final moments of injury time. Such triumphs are very sweet.

Easter celebrates such a triumph. Jesus' friends must have been utterly devastated by his death which seemed to also kill off all their hopes and dreams. Two grieving disciples lamented; "We thought he was the one to put everything right".

And then, just three days later, he was back! When some women first saw Jesus again and told his friends they weren't taken seriously. It was too good to be true, but gradually the men realised that it was true and they started to share their good news.

Down through twenty centuries and right across the world, billions of women and men have discovered that Jesus continues to live and continues to give life-transforming hope.

Last week, Bishop Peter, the Roman Catholic Bishop of Northampton, and I visited the Hope Centre in Northampton. Originally founded by the Churches, it does a tremendous job of serving local homeless people. It is a place of amazing transformation and full of hope. Not only does it provide basic support and access to services most of us take for granted, the centre also offers opportunities for clients to volunteer themselves, training programmes and accommodation for those who are beginning the journey back towards a home of their own.

Similar projects exist across the area, bringing the light of hope to people who could so easily give up. I would describe them as beautiful Easter places where the Christian value of hope is made real.

With my best wishes for a very Happy Easter,
Rt Revd John Holbrook (Bishop of Brixworth), By email

Letter to county council bosses on state of roads

Dear Mr Blantern (Chief Executive) and Mr Ciaburro (Director of Environment, Development & Transport)

After months of annoyance, frustration and anger, I have finally had to put pen to paper to send you this email regarding the appalling state of the road infrastructure in Northampton.

You cannot appreciate the anger I have regarding the thousands of potholes in the town and county which appear to be getting worse by the day and which I believe are now causing a risk to public safety and untold damage to car owners.

It does not matter where you drive as the problem is widespread from side streets to main roads and even main trunk roads.

I personally have had damage to my car wheels, which because I didn't report it at the time I don't appear to have any come back.

The buckling of both front wheels has been pointed out to me by a local reputable tyre company and I am 100% sure this damage was caused by potholes.

Now, like many other drivers, a drive through Northampton is a challenge to get to any destination weaving around potholes to try and avoid wheel damage. This is becoming more dangerous by the day as other drivers swerve to avoid the maze of holes in our roads, and it will only be time before a serious accident occurs.

The state of Northampton roads is a national disgrace and I would suggest they are worse than 3rd world countries, yet the Council has money to waste on projects like these ridiculous electronic road signs popping up all over the place.

When are you going to fix our roads? I pay my local taxes, I pay my national taxes and I pay my road taxes!

Between you and Tony Ciaburro (who I understand is responsible for transport) you pull around £300,000 in public salaries, so what do you intend to do about this critical situation?

I, like many motorists am furious and don't see why we have to put up with this ongoing disgraceful state of our roads.

Please can you advice me what is being done?

Report calls for changes to NHS

BY LAWRENCE JOHN

lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

An independent report conducted by Care Solutions UK Ltd into the care of patient R, a mental health patient at the Nottinghamshire Healthcare NHS Trust and the Northamptonshire Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust has been published.

In September 2008 R, then aged 37, unlawfully killed a 67 year old man who was unknown to him but whom he believed to be exploiting a female acquaintance (there was no evidence to substantiate this).

Patient R is now serving a prison sentence for this homicide.

Recommendations in the report for the county's NHS Trust include it should undertake a review of services for offenders with a personality disorder, both should agree a protocol on the handling of detailed confidential information when patients are transferred from the secure services of Trust 1 to Trust 2 and vice versa; it should reacquaint itself with the guidance 'Information Sharing and Mental Health', Trust 2 should undertake a review of services for offenders with a personality disorder.

This should take into consideration the policy guidance the 'Consultation on the Offender Personality Disorder Pathway Implementation Plan'

WOOTTON HALL: School could replace the police headquarters by 2016

Cop HQ may leave town

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

The Northamptonshire Police headquarters at Wootton Hall may move out of Northampton to be converted into a school by 2016, Police and Crime Commissioner Adam Simmonds has revealed.

On Friday evening, an event launching the idea of the 'Wootton Park School' was presented at Sixfields stadium, where PCC Adam Simmonds said an application for the school will be submitted to the Department for Education next month.

If successful, it is hoped the school will provide space for around 1,400 pupils aged four to 18-years-old with a focus on 'citizenship, community and service'.

After the event, Mr Simmonds told the Herald and Post if the HQ is unable to stay in the town, there is a chance it could be moved further afield into the county.

Mr Simmonds said: "I am seriously considering the police HQ not being in Northampton."

"However, I have not yet made a decision on that."

"I completely understand if people might be anxious about this, but we will consult with staff and can see what we can do to mitigate with any concerns."

If the police HQ stays in the town, one of the possible locations it could move to is Angel Street, where the new County Council offices are due to be built.

If it moves out, Kettering is a possible choice.

Mr Simmonds said the idea for a new school at the HQ started with a Victor Hugo quote. He added: "Victor said: 'if you open a school you close a prison'. Basically he is saying if you put all of that investment and energy into educating kids at the front end of it all, you are not going to need the prisons and the police services and all the other stuff that comes later."

On the day of the launch, former police officer Justin Brown set up a protest outside Sixfields stadium against the idea.

Mr Brown said: "I fully agree that opening new schools can be a great idea, I just don't believe that the process behind the proposed school at Wootton Hall are the kind of foundations any School should be built upon."

"There just seems to be such a rushed approach to get the school open by 2016, the existing police HQ needs to be moved first, which by the way, a spokesperson from the local Police Federation has openly stated remains 'fit for purpose'."

UK's sexiest male vegan from county

BY LAWRENCE JOHN

lawrencejohn@hpnorthants.co.uk

Gareth Lloyd from Northampton has been crowned PETA's Sexiest Male Vegan in the UK and Ireland in 2014.

The 27-year-old former soldier in the Royal Artillery 19th Regiment served in the conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Gareth who is a wildlife artist said: "It is great to be the winner and a bit surreal.

"My girlfriend entered me in the competition without me knowing.

"I made the change a year ago to become vegan and have been amazed at the difference.

"I used to eat fast food and sausage rolls and now I eat fruit, tofu and nuts.

"I have lost all the weight I gained by eating this type of food. I can eat what I want except meat or anything which comes from an animal.

"I don't expect everyone to become a vegan but for me it is way of life."

Glasgow-based Jenna McGuinness, 23, won the female category

A year on from the Boston Marathon

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER

nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

"It's like if you go on the London Underground, you think 'thank god I wasn't here when the bombs went off'. Life goes on, you don't just stop travelling on the tube."

These are the philosophical words of the Northampton man who escaped death at the Boston Marathon last year by just one hour.

On April 15, 2013, at 2.49pm, two pressure bombs exploded at the finish line of the marathon.

The tragedy killed three people and injured 264.

Mike Kendall, 58, from West Hunsbury, was in the race and had decided when he finished to go back to the hotel instead of waiting to get his medal engraved.

It was not until his son Gavin, 27, called him he realised what had happened.

"When I heard what had happened I looked outside the hotel window and could see everybody moving out

Getting it right first time

It's that time of year again when Primary School allocations are announced and many parents feel somewhat vulnerable, especially if they don't succeed in getting their first choice of school. Starting school can be without a doubt a time of mixed emotions for both parent and child and it is important for both that the selection of school is right. Choosing a school for your child is never easy and in my role as Head of Early Years I am often asked by parents, what makes a good Reception Class?

A high quality Reception or Foundation class should always be led by a qualified and experienced member of staff who has clear knowledge and understanding of the Early Years Curriculum. They should be able to answer your questions about what your child will experience in a typical day and talk confidently about how your child's progress will be monitored and assessed. The school should have clear guidelines and practised strategies for how they support and teach early Literacy and Mathematics. In the best settings, these are shared with parents through regular meetings, workshops and parent leaflets. When you visit the school, staff should talk you through the procedures for transition from Home or Nursery into school. A good transition policy incorporates meetings for parents, settling in sessions, parent and pupil information packs and in some cases home visits, all of which happen prior to the start of term.

Above all the Reception class must offer opportunities for purposeful play, through a mix of adult-led and child-initiated activity. A common misconception is that a highly structured, teacher led, Reception class will provide better academic outcomes. However, early childhood research clearly shows that play is essential for children's development, building their confidence as they learn to explore, problem solve, and encouraging them to develop vital personal, social and emotional skills which help them learn how to relate to others.

If as professionals we are to 'get it right' for our children, schools need to be transparent about what they offer in their Foundation Stage and work in partnership with parents to ensure that every child reaches their full potential.

Nicola Masters – Head of Early Years & KS1 (EYTS)

If you are unhappy with your Primary School allocation and are considering Independent schooling as an alternative please contact Nicola Masters for an informal confidential chat at Akeley Wood Junior School, Wicken 01908 571231.

COGNITA
TEACHING EXCELLENCE

UNFAZED: Mike is determined to keep running marathons and will be competing in the Snowdonia Marathon this October of the city.

"There were a lot of flashing blue lights around and it was all over the news."

Mike had been staying in the Hotel Revere with his wife Cath, 58, and had planned to celebrate his fastest marathon time of three hours 28 minutes that evening, but the award ceremony was cancelled because of the bombings.

"All hotels in central Boston was on lockdown including ours, so we were stuck inside," Mike added.

"From then, Boston wasn't really the same for a few days."

One year on, Mike tells the Herald and Post the events on that day has not stopped him taking part in the sport he loves, and that he would consider returning to the Boston Marathon one day.

He said: "The marathon was a tragedy for those who were affected, but runners like myself won't let this affect us and will keep going."

Mike is now aiming to compete in the Snowdonia Marathon on October 25.

WHAT'S ON ROUND-UP

A life full of musical Madness for Suggs

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

Madness frontman Suggs brings his hilarious and moving one man tour de force My Life Story to Royal & Derngate on Sunday, April 27 at 7.30pm.

As he turns fifty, a loud crash in the singer's bathroom heralds the sudden death of his beloved cat.

This tragedy propels him on a reflective journey through his own highs and lows, and triggers a personal quest to discover what happened to the father he never knew.

Accompanied by a lone pianist, Suggs combines narrative, anecdote and song to reveal his life story in an uproarious – and at times deeply affecting – stand-up memoir.

He recalls his tough childhood on the mean streets of Soho in the days of platform boots, tank tops, cheesecloth and big hair; his sudden fame at the age of eighteen as lead singer of Madness and the sudden collapse of the band just a few years later.

With a wife and two small children to support he determines to rebuild his career through music production, solo albums, television, theatre, film and radio – despite numerous hilarious setbacks. His epic life tale is inter-persed with a selection of Madness' best loved and most celebrated anthems.

Their inventive music and lyrics, heard anew in the context in which they were written, often become unexpectedly poignant, as Suggs stumbles and plummets through the trap door of failure, before bouncing back to catch the passing trapeze of showbusiness success.

Tickets for Suggs: My Life Story cost £27 can be booked by calling the Box Office at the Derngate on 01604 624811 or you can visit the website at www.royalandderngate.co.uk

WHAT'S ON ROUND-UP

Music and laughs in the Brian Conley show

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

If you are going to watch Brian Conley at the Derngate on May 1, at 8pm you will be saving £400 per person.

This is not some mumbo jumbo treasury fact from the Chancellor of the Exchequer, not it is the wisdom of Brian Conley.

The reason for this saving is in his new show he does a large medley of numbers from musicals he has appeared in and if you had to fork out to see them all it would cost you in the region of £400.

If you have a date for that evening and want to see the show you will save £800 - something to think about.

With a career spanning three decades and five million ticket sales, Brian Conley makes a highly anticipated return to the stage in his all-new variety show at Royal & Derngate on Thursday 1 May.

An all-round entertainer in the grand tradition, Brian honed his natural skills as a comic and singer in pubs and clubs across Britain, making his first television appearances in the early 1980s.

His first TV sketch show hit the screens in 1989 and its successor, The Brian Conley Show, brought him huge success through the 1990s, introducing characters including his accident-prone stuntman alter-ego Dangerous Brian and disillusioned, puppet-bashing children's television host Nick Frisbee to an adoring public.

Brian said: "Dangerous Brian will be there as he will be stretched on stage."

"There will be songs from Al Jolson (the musical) and Hairspray which will be included in a huge medley."

"Anyone attending the one and a half hour show will save £400 per person (by not having to see all the musicals the songs come from)."

"The one think I like about doing my own show is the freedom it gives me."

"This type of show will be last I will be doing for a while as my next role will be as P T Barnum in Barnum for the next year."

Tickets, priced at £23.50, can be booked by calling Box Office on 01604 624811, or online at www.royalandderngate.co.uk

Fiddler on the Roof

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

Fiddler on the Roof comes to Northampton's Royal & Derngate from Tuesday, April 22 to Saturday, April 26.

Paul Michael Glaser (Starsky in the 70's TV series Starsky and Hutch) plays the lead role of Tevye.

Fiddler on the Roof is one of the most popular and beloved of all stage musicals. Performances are at 7.30pm nightly and matinees at 2.30pm on Wednesday and Saturday.

Tickets, priced from £34.50 to £14 can be booked by calling Box Office on 01604 624811 or online at www.royalandderngate.co.uk which has been especially commissioned for the occasion.

The concert will begin at 7.30pm and there is a pre-concert talk at 6.30pm with David Curtis, Artistic Director of the Orchestra of the Swan and conductor.

SUNDAY

Northampton Saints play at home today in an Aviva Premiership clash versus London Irish.

The game at Franklin's Gardens kicks-off at 2pm.

I don't usually go to a fish and chip restaurant and sit-in for my food, like most people, I usually get my meals to take-away.

But when I went to Ramsbottom's fish and chip shop in Abington Street, Northampton, I found it far more enjoyable than sitting at home.

The food was freshly fried so the batter and chips were perfectly crisp and the insides were soft and fluffy.

The chips were piled high on the plate and the fish was more than enough. One of us ordered a portion of curry sauce with our meal, which came in a big bowl, which was filled almost to the top!

The food was extremely tasty and of a high quality. So I felt we definitely got what we paid for.

Three of us ate well for around £20, including soft drinks.

I, personally, really enjoyed my meal at Ramsbottom's, and would recommend it to anyone else who enjoys a tasty portion of fish and chips.

It sounds like I'm talking in riddles but it's really very simple. Sit down with your Herald and Post property supplement and see what's out there.

You'll do a lot of research whether you are buying or selling so make sure you start with the newspaper with the biggest circulation in the county. And in these pages you'll find not just an amazing array of expertise in the businesses that advertise here but some of the nicest people you could hope to meet along the way. Why shouldn't they be? A new home is a big dream for some, a smaller dream for others but when the keys are handed over it's always a dream come true. Good luck with your search, you're starting in the right place...

NOT ALL ESTATE AGENTS ARE THE SAME!

Millers have been working in this way since being established in 1989 and year by year the service just gets better as our experience continues to grow. We pride ourselves not only on our ability to sell properties at the best price for the customer, but also on our level of customer care.

BUT DON'T JUST TAKE OUR WORD

CUSTOMER REVIEWS*

Dear Mr Miller,

I just wanted to drop you a quick email to say how impressed I was with the service provided by Millers to my husband and I during the sale of our house in West Hunsbury towards the end of last year.

Although we'd obviously bought the property four years ago, it was the first time that we were faced with selling a property. Plus the fact that it was a shared ownership property made it a rather daunting prospect. We began by getting a few quotes from other agents in Northampton. Not only were some of them more expensive but they also didn't initially provide the customer service that we were after.

The fact that Millers had already sold properties down our road was a big bonus for us - showing that those SOLD signs are good for advertising!

Not only that, Carl provided a first class service from the start of the process when he visited our home and talked us through the process. We felt we could be open and honest with him and he talked us through everything we needed to know.

So when Carl sold our home on the first ten minute viewing, we were amazed!

Sadly, we ended up losing the initial buyer several weeks later which was obviously a worry to us having already paid upfront fees to buy our next house.

Carl reassured us that he would do everything he could do find us another buyer. The house went back on the market that night and 48 hours later it was sold again.

Carl went through a lot of stress and worked so hard to make sure he secured another buyer for us and kept us in the loop every step of the way.

Even when the solicitors went quiet, Carl continued to keep us informed about everything that was happening which was a huge relief during a very stressful time in the run up to completion.

If I'm being completely honest I found the selling and buying of a property pretty stressful whilst trying to hold down a busy job and in the run up to Christmas, but Carl made it that bit less stressful which is what you need from an estate agent.

So thank you to Carl and everyone at Millers for doing a fantastic job. I will recommend the company to anyone that asks and I hope you go on to please many more buyers across Northampton.

Kind regards,
AliceB

COVERCAR

Inside the new Hyundai i10 Test drive

Hyundai is looking for its i10 city car to step up from being merely branded good value for money to being considered best in class - or thereabouts. With smart styling, plenty of pace inside, strong equipment levels and a focus on refinement, it's in with a genuine shot. The latest model has targeted improving refinement as a key priority. The suspension has been given a thorough working over to improve ride quality and reduce noise. The key difference between this car and its predecessor is the old design was a model created largely for emerging markets and was built in India, the latest car is a little more tailored to European tastes. Add in a strong level of standard kit and a competitive warranty arrangement and the i10 looks able to compete with the class best even when it's pitched at much the same price as them. That's a clear statement of intent from Hyundai.

Welcome. . .

Hi, have I got a treat for you... If you're interested in cars - either buying, selling or browsing - then you are in the right place. I have assembled some of the greatest deals, greatest expertise and greatest cars out there in the local market right now and we've put it all together here in your Herald and Post motors section.

This is the place to come if you want to keep your car running smoothly because you will find servicing and spares in these pages too. I know the motors trade in this town and our dealers have a wealth of knowledge they are only too happy to share with you. You'll find some great value here as well with real gems on the forecourts whichever price band you are looking in. Inside this weeks supplement you will find both new & used cars, light commercials & garages offering all kinds of services to help you get on the road & keep you there, which are all local to you.

I know these businesses and I'm pleased to be doing you the favour of introducing you to them because it is a pleasure working with them. That's why I love my job. When you call in on them, say Mike sent you - it might not get you any special treatment but it will definitely put a smile on their face! Best regards, Michael Loveridge ATHLETICS: Angela Copson and Ellena Ruddock brought gold back to Rugby & Northampton Athletic Club after starring performances at the World Masters Indoor Championships.

The pair won five individual titles and two team golds between them in what was a remarkable run of success in Budapest.

In the W65 category, Copson won the cross-country, 3000m, 1500m and 800m as well as contributing to a W60 team win.

Ruddock won 200m gold in the W35 section and was also a member of the winning 4x200m relay team who triumphed in a world record time. She also clinched a silver in the 100m.

BOXING: Far Cotton ABC super heavy-weight Seb Brown was victorious against Josh Burke of Amphin ABC in Walsall.

He won by majority decision with Far Cotton coach John Daly describing the fight as one of the best he'd seen in the weight division. Brown will now be fighting for a novice super-heavyweight title this evening, taking on Ryan Curry in Stoke.

ARCHERY: Sixteen-year-old Bradley Denny has been selected to compete at the first stage of the Archery World Cup in Shanghai later this month.

The dead-eye from Raunds will compete in the recurve discipline as part of a 13-strong male and female squad which features a mix of experience and youth.

Wood admits Saints face battle for home semi spot

SAINTS

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@lsnmedia.co.uk

Tom Wood admitted that Saints are 'under the cosh' after Sunday's defeat at league leaders Saracens left hopes of a home semi-final in the Premiership play-offs in doubt.

The 28-24 reverse at Allianz Park means Northampton have now lost three in a row in the league and are only three points above Leicester Tigers in second spot.

A top two finish is required for a home semi and although participation in the play-offs is all but secure, Saints do not want to miss the chance to play their last four clash at Franklin's Gardens.

"It would have been nice to have a couple of wins under our belt by now and be sitting pretty," said Wood. "It would give us the luxury of rotation and freshening people up, and really looking to peak at the right times."

"But we're under the cosh a little bit now, we've got to really fight for our home semi-final spot."

Saints have three league games left to hang on to second spot, with Saracens ten points clear of them at the top and looking like certainties to finish the regular season at the summit.

The treble of matches will be critically important, with the visit of London Irish on Easter Sunday starting the run-in.

"It's in our hands and against London Irish we have to make sure we get back to winning ways and develop some momentum, particularly at home," said Wood.

"It's a big six weeks for us going into the end of the season."

Saints did manage to collect a losing bonus point this weekend after a dramatic finale which saw them score two tries in the closing stages of the match.

Luther Burrell and George North both crossed the whitewash in the last ten minutes to give Northampton a chance of a dramatic victory, but the damage had already been done after they went in at half-time 21-10 behind.

"We've got to be smarter, whether it's a case of us not giving clear messages or not listening I'm not sure," said Wood.

"Somehow we have to clear up the lines of communication and make sure we're still on the same page as the first half was pretty confused."

"We did things we didn't speak about in the week and it played into Saracens' hands."

Saints are fighting for trophies on two fronts with an Amlin Challenge Cup semi-final at home to Harlequins coming up a week on Friday, and flanker Wood is keen for Saints to establish themselves as the best and not just a side who respond to adversity.

"You can't just be a team of talented individuals who show character when their backs are against the wall," he said.

UNDER THE COSH: Tom Wood

"It's not okay to lose so badly to Leinster and then come out fighting the next week."

"It's not what we're about, it's not what I want to be about. We need to do it when the target is on our back, when we're top of the pile and we're being chased down, we need to perform in those circumstances."

"We don't want to win just one Premiership but win them consistently, that's what we're all striving for."

WICKET: Northants celebrate a dismissal against Durham

Final pair salvage a draw

Northamptonshire's final pairing of Rob Newton and Azharullah secured a dramatic draw as the county began life in Division One of the LV= County Championship against defending champions Durham.

David Ripley's side looked to be heading towards an opening match defeat when wickets began to tumble in the final session, but Newton and Azharullah proved to be the heroes as they negotiated a nervy final nine overs successfully to frustrate their visitors at the County Ground.

Injury-hit Northants started the match with their two leading wicket takers from last year out of action – thanks to Trent Copeland being unable to obtain a work permit for this year and David Willey being fit enough to play but not yet bowl.

The county have also been frustrated when trying to recruit overseas talent – with Australian Jackson Bird and then South Africa's Rory Kleinveldt withdrawing through injury after signing.

After being asked to field, Azharullah was the pick of Northants' bowlers as he took 3-116 in Durham's first innings total of 452.

Phil Mustard top-scored for the visitors with 91 while Michael Richardson (80), number nine Jamie Harrison (65), Gareth Breese (62) and opener Keaton Jennings (54) also brought up their half centuries.

In reply Matt Spriegel was the star with the bat for Northants, making 97 before being dismissed an agonising three runs short of his century.

Opener Stephen Peters made 51 and Kyle Coetzer 53 as the hosts were bowled out for 378 to trail by 74 runs. Northants then made decent inroads as Durham batted for a second time, leaving them 189-6 at one stage.

However, they rallied to 244 all out despite James Middlebrook's 5-62, with Richardson (59) again passing fifty.

That left Northamptonshire requiring 319 runs to win but they soon found themselves in trouble at 68-3 on the final day yesterday.

The county lost their final three wickets for just six runs, including David Murphy and Maurice Chambers to consecutive Scott Borthwick deliveries, but the final stand of 19 runs from Newton, who finished not out on 48, and Azharullah ensured that play ended with Ripley's men undefeated on 205-9.

The result represents a good start for the county who collect six bonus points and four for the draw against the champions following promotion last term. Their next four day game gets started at Yorkshire on Sunday.

Time on the training ground vital for Wilder as boss plots escape

on the front foot and we will go to Wycombe with the same mind-set," said Wilder.

"We are going for a win but nothing gets decided on Friday, both teams will make a big step forward if they win and that's obviously the prize at stake but who's to say both teams can't get out of it?

"We certainly needed to do something after the Bury game [3-0 home defeat on March 29] and the response from everybody has been terrific and that needs to carry on.

"The support was tremendous on Saturday and it was the first thing I talked about after the game because it was that important.

"It gave us such a boost, we've talked before about doing this together and that was certainly the case on Saturday.

"We saw against Burton what that support did for the players, it drove them over the line and I'm sure when we walk out at Wycombe we will look to the left and see a sea of claret.

"We've played pressure football all season and we've handled that as seen in our results.

"Experience is going to be invaluable over the next four games and we've certainly got that in abundance.

"We've won some big games at Torquay, Exeter and Accrington and generally we are hard to beat and we've got enough about us to go and win a game of football."

The Cobblers are now level on points with a team in a safe position after being seven points adrift at one stage, and Wilder believes that extra work on the training pitch has been a key factor in his side's back-to-back victories.

"The good thing about the last couple of weeks is we've had time on the training ground, it's been vital," said Wilder.

"We had a bang-load of games in March and there were psychological blows in there, draws we should have won or defeats, it hit us and hurt us. We got back on the training ground in the last couple of weeks and the tempo, the work ethic and the atmosphere in training has been superb.

"The quality has been superb and I'm a big believer that if you get things right on the training pitch it rolls into a Saturday and it certainly has the last two weeks."

Cobblers face two final matches after the Easter period, a trip to mid-table Dagenham & Redbridge – who have little to play for – on April 26 and then an intriguing home clash with Oxford United – the club Wilder surprisingly left to join the Cobblers in January following Aidy Boothroyd's sacking.

The U's, now managed by Wilder's replacement Gary Waddock, may need points themselves as they bid for a play-off place.

Comment: Burton win sets up 'mother of six pointers'

Columnist and Cobblers fan Tom Reed gives his thoughts on Northampton's vital 1-0 victory against Burton on Saturday. You can read more of his 'Gripped by the Cobblers' columns online at www.northampton-news-hp.co.uk/sport.

BY TOM REED

sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

A week on from Accrington's '60s Crown Ground, it was back to the future as Northampton took on Burton Albion at Sixfields.

Promotion-chasing Albion are the epitome of a modern League Two side with their training base at St George's Park and team full of technical players, whereas Northampton, awaiting ground improvements, are in stasis, fighting their familiar battle with relegation.

But, while Arsene Wenger would approve of Gary Rowett's compact side, the Brewers found their kiss-chase, pass and move football smothered by Northampton. Chris Wilder's side was spurred on by the amplified applause of the Cobblers' faithful thanks to several thousand "clap banners" handed out by a local Skoda dealer, a change from the reputation for clapped out bangers built before the VW takeover.

Recently fired Chris Hughton had a concertina clacker chucked at his head and Chris Wilder might have thought about a touchline cycle helmet given home fans' unease at their patched-up starting eleven.

Zander Diamond was barred by his parent club; Mathias Doumbe injured and Darren Carter suspended meaning Wilder opted for the 3-4-1-2 formation sometimes used by Liverpool.

In came defenders Gregor Robertson and Ben Tozer with Ian Morris and Alan Connell in midfield.

Burton's yellow kit matched the pitch-side water hoses on a dry yet overcast day while they opted for a more standard 4-4-2 fronted by danger men Adam McGurk and Billy Kee.

McGurk sports a half-finished haircut, long on top and shorn at the sides and Albion appeared to have a half-formed game plan in the early skirmishes.

The squat Kee, in particular, had a mental blank about standing up to side-by-side challenges, falling like a pug in a rough and tumble amongst bigger dogs and yapping at the uninterested ref Berry.

The Cobblers could have taken an early lead when Connell met a Tozer throw on the volley but the former Bradford man fired into the side netting.

Fair haired and slight, Connell has a touch of Pat Gavin about him and his work behind Emile Sinclair and John Marquis pleased the home fans. Lewisham lad Marquis comes from docker stock and gave short shrift to the dainty Burton team, perhaps more used to the shadow-play of the England training base.

Marquis scored the decisive goal on forty-three minutes as he sent a speculative shot into the arms of Albion keeper Rob Lainton only for the Burton number one to fumble into his own net.

The goal was indicative of just how startled Rowett's side had been by the Cobblers' intensity and Lainton was withdrawn at the break. "Be loud" read a black and yellow banner in the away end, not that Northampton fans needed any excuse.

The second half set Cobblers' players' pulses racing in time to the fans' clackers.

Robertson, so far a bit-part player, showed no little composure in blocking a Shane Cansdell-Sherriff shot from all of six yards on fifty-two minutes.

While man-of-the-match went to Marquis, long throw specialist Tozer proved he was more than just a duke of hurl with a secure showing in his natural centre-back position whilst Connell's eye for space gave Sinclair room to run.

Former Forest man Sinclair found his sprinting spikes, embarking on several long range dribbles and his eightieth minute surge and pass to Marquis saw the Millwall man's shot palmed away to Dean Lyness's right.

Structural work is due on the Sixfields redevelopment but Kelvin Langmead's return within ten minutes to go negated the need to raise the roof of the West Stand.

The club captain has fought against the uncertainty of a possible career-ending injury and the response was a definitive tackle, head, kick performance that had Burton defeated.

After the 1-0 win there were suggestions that the Cobblers "wanted" it more than Albion. Not so, Burton craved victory and are a good side if allowed to play: it's just that the Cobblers decided they wouldn't.

Promotion chasing Burton have trouble brewing given they were so comprehensively out-played by second from bottom Cobblers. Northampton and Wycombe are now level on points going into the mother of all six-pointers at Adams Park on Good Friday. I'd keep an unchanged side and let them delete non-league football from the club's future.

READY FOR BATTLE: Chris Wilder knows the importance of tomorrow's game

BY DAN PALMER

Northampton Town travel to Wycombe Wanderers tomorrow for what promises to be a titanic battle in their scrap against relegation.

Nearly 2,000 members of the Shoe Army are expected to follow the Cobblers to Adams Park for a League Two clash which quite simply couldn't be much bigger.

Both sides are fighting for their Football League lives and know that victory on Good Friday will be a huge step towards safety next season.

Defeat, on the other hand, would leave the losers on the brink of relegation and non-league football in the Conference during 2014/15.

Chris Wilder's Cobblers will travel to Buckinghamshire in good spirits after Saturday's vital 1-0 home win over promotion chasing Burton Albion – a result which backed up a fine victory by the same margin at Accrington Stanley a week prior.

For once, results elsewhere went in Northampton's favour as well with Wycombe's 2-0 defeat at Newport County meaning the Cobblers drew level on points with the Chairboys – and are now only in the relegation zone due to goal difference.

A string of other clubs remain in trouble as well and with just four games to go the picture promises to be much clearer following the Easter fixtures – which include a home clash against Portsmouth for the Cobblers on Monday.

Bottom of the table Torquay United look all but doomed meaning there is just one relegation spot to avoid.

Buoyed by his side's two crucial victories, Cobblers boss Wilder has pledged to go on the offensive against Wycombe.

"We've attacked our last two games
